Ques : Recently how many Indian languages have given classical language status by the central government ?

हाल ही में केंद्र सरकार ने कितनी भारतीय भाषाओं को शास्त्रीय भाषा का दर्जा दिया है?

- (a) 4
- (b) 5
- (c) 6
- (d) 7
- (e) 8

Answer : Option B

Explanation :

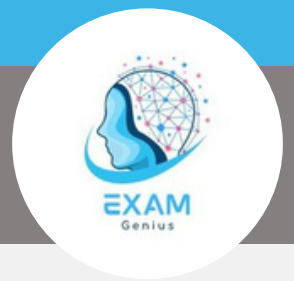

- The Union Cabinet has approved granting 'classical language' status to five new languages: Marathi, Bengali, Pali, Prakrit, and Assamese. With this cabinet decision, the number of languages with the status will nearly treble, from six to eleven.
- Previously, the tag applied to Tamil, Sanskrit, Telugu, Kannada, Malayalam, and Odia. Tamil was accorded the status in 2004, and the last language to receive it was Odia, in 2014.
- In 2004, Tamil became the first language in India to be recognized as a classical language.

About Criteria for Being a Classical Language :

- In 2004, the Union Ministry of Culture established a Linguistic Expert Committee within the Sahitya Akademi to define the criteria for classifying an Indian language as classical.

The criteria have been updated from time to time, and the current set of criteria are as follows:

- Language's early writings and recorded history must be between 1500 and 2000 years old.
- Language must comprise knowledge texts, particularly prose works, poetry, and epigraphic and inscriptional proof.
- Classical languages and literature may be distinct from their current form or discontinuous with subsequent forms of their offshoots.
- Languages must have old literature/texts that generations of speakers believe to be their heritage.
