Ques : Who Updates KYC Rules to Enhance Verification and Security ?

सत्यापन और सुरक्षा बढ़ाने के लिए केवाईसी नियमों को कौन अपडेट करता है?

- (a) NABARD / नाबार्ड
- (b) RBI / आरबीआई
- (c) EPFO / ईपीएफओ
- (d) SEBI / सेबी
- (e) SIDBI / सिडबी

Answer : Option B

Explanation :

• In a significant move to strengthen the Know Your Customer (KYC) process, the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) introduced six amendments to its KYC Master Directions, effective November 6, 2024.

Amendments in KYC Rules are as follows :

- Customers who have already completed KYC will no longer need to repeat the process when opening new accounts or availing additional services within the same institution
- High-risk customers will need updates every 2 years, medium-risk every 8 years, and low-risk every 10 years
- Financial institutions are now required to upload customer KYC data to the Central KYC Records Registry (CKYCR) for accounts opened after January 1, 2017
- High-risk accounts, including those with unusual cash deposits or cheque requests, will undergo more intensive monitoring.
- Throughout the Master Direction, references to “section” have been replaced with “paragraph” for consistency in legal language
- The designation of the Central Nodal Officer under the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act has been updated from “Additional Secretary” to “Joint Secretary” as per a corrigendum issued earlier this year.
