Ques : What changes have been made by the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) under the Foreign Exchange Management Act (FEMA)?

- (a) Promoting digital payments across India
- (b) Allowing cross-border transactions in Indian Rupee (INR) and local/national currencies
- (c) Imposing restrictions on foreign direct investments
- (d) Enhancing cash withdrawal limits for NRIs
- (e) Introducing stricter regulations for forex trading

Answer : Option B

Explanation :

- RBI in cooperation with the government, has proposed amendments to the existing Foreign Exchange Management Act (FEMA) regulations to encourage cross-border transactions in the Indian rupee (INR) and local / national currencies.
- This action comes against the backdrop of the rupee being under pressure from a surging dollar, weakening the Chinese currency.
- According to the revisions in FEMA, overseas branches of banks that are authorized to deal in foreign exchange (Authorised Dealers) would be able to create INR accounts for a resident outside India for the settlement of all permissible current account and capital account transactions with a resident in India.
- According to the FEMA revisions, persons located outside India will be able to use their balances in repatriable INR accounts for overseas investment, including FDI, in non-debt securities.
- Indian exporters would be able to open foreign currency accounts overseas to settle trade transactions, such as receiving export revenues and using them to pay for imports.
