Ques: Until which date has the government allowed companies to revise the MRP of unsold FMCG stocks?

- A. September 30, 2025
- B. October 31, 2025
- C. December 31, 2025
- D. March 31, 2026
- E. June 30, 2026

Answer: Option C

Explanation:

- The Central Government has allowed FMCG companies to revise the MRP of unsold packaged goods until December 31, 2025, following a reduction in GST rates from 12%/18% to 5% by the GST Council.
- The revised MRP can be displayed using stickers, stamping, or online printing, but the original MRP must remain visible.
- Companies are required to issue a public notice in newspapers and inform legal metrology authorities about the changes.
- The price revision should only reflect the actual tax change due to GST, without any additional price hike.
- Old packaging material with previous MRP can still be used till December 31, provided that the corrected price is displayed clearly.
- This move will reduce packaging waste, give operational flexibility, and help industries manage large inventories smoothly.

Ques: Who has been appointed as the new Prime Minister of France after François Bayrou's resignation?

- A. Emmanuel Macron
- B. Jean Castex
- C. Élisabeth Borne
- D. Sébastien Lecornu
- E. François Fillon

Answer: Option D

Explanation:

- Sébastien Lecornu has been appointed as the new Prime Minister of France, replacing François Bayrou, who resigned after losing a vote of confidence.
- The appointment has sparked nationwide protests, starting September 2025, against President Emmanuel Macron's austerity program.
- Protesters aim to paralyze the country by blocking roads, railways, fuel depots, schools, and workplaces, a movement known as "Block Everything."
- Macron's austerity program = €44B cuts + tax hikes + removing holidays → aimed at cutting debt, but triggered mass protests and political crisis
